About IHN

Empowering Homeless Families by Engaging People of Faith

Despite ranking in the top percentile among counties nationwide in per capita income, Johnson County's homeless population has skyrocketed by 50 percent since 2009.

IHN is Johnson County's only 501(c)(3), ein 20-0118693, non-profit homeless shelter operating 24/7/365 to help families get back on their feet by providing shelter, meals and a full range of social services.

A base of over 3,300 trained volunteers from IHN's 36-member congregations volunteer time to transport homeless guests, prepare meals, staff the Family Center in Overland Park and a host of other services.
